

Regional Aspects of European Energy Transition

Tuesday, June 4, 2019, 12:30 – 16:00

Martynas Mažvydas National Library of Lithuania, Room 305

Gedimino 51, Vilnius

12:00	Arrival and set up
12:30	Welcome speech Lina Sabaitienė, Vice-Minister of Energy of the Republic of Lithuania
12:40	Welcome speech Virgilijus Poderys, Member of the Lithuanian Parliament, Chair of the Commission for Energy and Sustainable Development
12:50	Integrated impact assessment of decarbonisation pathways for the European Union Georgios Avgerinopoulos, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
13:20	The role of district heating in the context of decarbonization: insights from the case study on Helsinki, Kaunas, and Warsaw Sanna Syri, Aalto University
13:50	Coffee break
14:10	Energy security in Baltic countries and Finland Arvydas Galinis, Lithuanian Energy Institute
14:40	Assessment of energy security coefficient for Baltic countries and Finland considering energy system resilience to disruptions Linas Martišauskas, Lithuanian Energy Institute
15:00	Distributional and energy poverty impacts of energy transition Vidas Lekavičius, Lithuanian Energy Institute
15:20	Discussion
16:00	End of the workshop

Please register here: <http://bit.ly/reem>

The REEM project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 691739.